REASONS FOR JUDGMENT OF THE COURT (Delivered from the Bench at Edmonton, Alberta, on June 5, 2012)

EVANS J.A.

[1] This is an application for judicial review by the Attorney General of Canada to set aside a decision by an Umpire (CUB 78127) dismissing an appeal from a decision by a Board of Referees, dated December 30, 2010.

[2] In that decision, the Board allowed an appeal by Linda Gibson from a decision by the Canada Employment Insurance Commission that she was not entitled to receive employment insurance benefits for the week of July 15 to July 22, 2009 when she was outside Canada. During the week in question, Ms Gibson was in Phoenix, Arizona.

[3] Section 37(b) of the Employment Insurance Act, S.C. 1996, c, 23, provides that "except as may otherwise be prescribed", a claimant is not entitled to receive benefits while outside Canada. Subsection 55(1) of the Employment Insurance Regulations, SOR/96-332, provides that claimants are not disqualified from receiving benefits if they are outside Canada for not more than specified periods "to attend a bona fide job interview" (« une entrevue d'emploi ») (paragraph (e)), or "to conduct a bona fide job search (« une recherche d'emploi ») (paragraph (f)).

[4] The Board found as a fact that Ms Gibson was absent from Canada in Phoenix in search for a pre-arranged employment opportunity, and held that she fell within section 55 of the Regulations.

[5] We are not persuaded on the basis of the materials before us that the Umpire made any reviewable error of fact or law in dismissing the appeal from the Board's decision. Accordingly, the application for judicial review will be denied.
